

ENGLAND SOUNDS OUT CZECHS AND NAZIS ON PLANS

British Work To Lessen Tension Between Two Nations

London, May 26.—(AP)—Great Britain today sounded out both Germany and Czechoslovakia on a plan to send British observers to their troubled border as a means of lessening tension.

Germany was understood to be not unfavorable to the plan.

Authoritative sources disclosed William Strang, head of the central European department of the foreign office, would report on the proposal after visiting British diplomats in Berlin and Praha.

The observer idea was said still to be indefinite. It was assumed, however, it would entail unofficial "umpires" who would give Britain unbiased reports of border incidents and help her in the role of peacemaker.

Strang left for the continent on Tuesday, it was disclosed, because it was considered inadvisable for the British ambassadors to leave their posts to come to London at the height of the German-Czech border tension.

His reports were expected to give Britain a clearer picture of the issues and indicate what measures would be best to patch up the differences between Berlin and Praha.

STUDY SUGGESTIONS

Praha, May 26.—(AP)—The Czechoslovak government today studied new French and British suggestions designed to terminate the crisis arising from the demands of the sudeten German minority and Adolf Hitler's "protectorate" over them.

Stefan Asusky, minister to Paris, arrived last night by plane and reported at once to Foreign Minister Kamil Krofta. They conferred again today.

Jan Masaryk, minister to London, returned by air this afternoon to confer with both Krofta and President Eduard Benes.

Renewed Assurance

It was understood that both Masaryk and Asusky brought renewed assurances of Anglo-French support but these were accompanied by undiminished emphasis on the necessity of a concession to the sudeten whom the German fuhrer had said he would protect from "suffering."

Diplomatic quarters in Praha expressed satisfaction with the way the government handled yesterday's difficult situation at Eger when two sudeten, killed last Saturday by border guards, were given a demonstrative Nazi funeral.

Despite the aggressive tone of funeral speeches by two sudeten deputies, Karl Hermann Frank and Ernst Figner, it was hoped that another meeting between the sudeten fuhrer, Konrad Henlein, and Premier Milan Hozda could be arranged before the week-end.

However a government spokesman said tonight that a German warplane had been sighted on a flight over Czechoslovakia's great munitions plant, the Skoda factory at Plzen (Pilsen), and the report cast a shadow over the prospects of a German-Czechoslovak settlement.

The flight over Plzen, some 50 miles from the German border in western Bohemia, was said by the spokesman to have been one of three border violations yesterday. Foreign Minister Kamil Krofta had assured German Minister Ernst Eisenlohr that the Czechoslovak government had taken measures to prevent such violations by its own planes after Eisenlohr cited three cases.

Krofta cited 14 instances of aerial trespassing by Germany, involving 34 planes, between last Friday and yesterday. He said that in some cases the planes flew in formation.

Federal Men Press Hunt for 14 Stills

Peoria, Ill., May 26.—(AP)—Five defendants were at liberty under bond today on charges of violation of liquor revenue laws while Federal authorities pressed their hunt for 14 others indicted in connection with operation of 14 stills in Bureau county and vicinity.

The five were Joe Diamond, Springfield, accused of heading a ring and of supplying sugar used in distilling operations; Joe Corso, alias Crow of LaSalle, charged with being a liquor-runner and still-builder; Leo Vitale of Peru, Fred Bost of Ladd and Angelo Vinto of LaSalle. The latter three men were accused of operating stills.

Federal men estimated the total production of the ring's still at 5,000 or 6,000 gallons a day and said the gang had been operating four years.

RIVER EXPERT DEAD

Alton, Ill., May 26.—(AP)—Sidney B. Baker, 77, grandson of David J. Baker, an early United States Senator from Illinois, died today after an illness of two weeks.

An agent for the Eagle Packet Company for about 30 years, he had a broad knowledge of Mississippi steamboating and took part in river promotion work.

Was Fascinated

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—A young robber was so fascinated by a pretty Western Union clerk whom he had robbed twice previously that when he called again last night police seized him.

Arthur Trygg, 26, paroled from the Illinois penitentiary in 1936, was arrested in front of a North Clark street telephone office by three detectives and a special investigator. He was charged with committing five robberies.

Miss Clover Doremus, 26, said when Trygg robbed her the first time, he remarked: "I'd certainly like to meet you under different circumstances."

Several weeks later he robbed her again, this time inviting her to join him in a vacation trip to Florida.

But when Trygg called for the third time at the same office police were waiting.

QUARREL OVER FUNDS LEADS TO SHOOTING

Minneapolis, May 26.—(AP)—William Brown, 43, president of the powerful General Drivers Union 544, was shot to death last night, and police said today they had a confession from a man who had quarreled with him over union funds.

It was the second labor slaying here in six months. Echoes of the unsolved Patrick J. Corcoran killing Nov. 17 still were reverberating as Brown's body was found slumped in the front seat of his car near union headquarters. A coroner's jury reported two days ago Corcoran, an officer of the drivers union, was killed by "a person or persons unknown."

Police Chief Frank Forestal said Arnold Johnson, 33, an organizer for Local 544, an A. F. of L. affiliate, confessed he had shot Brown twice.

Forestal said Johnson stated he and Brown had been driving about on union business, stopping to have several drinks before parking within a block of the union's offices. There, the chief quoted the suspect as saying, the two quarreled over union funds and Johnson drew a pistol.

Brown lunged at him, Johnson told the chief, and "I shot him." "I thought he had more money than was necessary," Forestal quoted Johnson as saying. "I shot him twice."

Former Lieutenant Governor Oglesby Is Critically Ill

Elkhart, Ill., May 26.—(AP)—Back at his ancestral home, John G. Oglesby, who twice was lieutenant governor of Illinois, was in a critical condition today.

The 60-year-old Republican leader, son of Governor Richard J. Oglesby, returned to "Oglesbury" yesterday afternoon in an ambulance, after spending three weeks as a patient in the Presbyterian hospital at Chicago.

He has been in ill health for several months. His condition today was reported unchanged. Dr. C. W. Compton of Springfield, his personal physician, said there was no hope for Oglesby's recovery.

PRESBYTERIAN MODERATOR

Cleveland, May 26.—(AP)—The United Presbyterian church elected Dr. Ralph Atkinson of Los Angeles moderator at the opening of its 80th general assembly last night. Dr. Hugh A. Kelsey, president of Sterling College, Sterling, Kan., and Dr. L. E. H. Smith of Buffalo, N. Y., were other nominees for the church's highest national office. Retiring Moderator is Dr. A. R. Robinson of Pittsburgh.

He Wasn't Certain

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—Henry Picard Gibson, believed by his family to have been the oldest living former congressman, died yesterday.

He was more than 100 years old. It wasn't certain whether he was born on Christmas Eve of 1836 or 1837—a difference which Gibson always dismissed as "nothing to worry about."

Gibson represented the Second Tennessee district in the house from 1895 to 1905.

Tammany Hall Leader Indicted on Counts Linking Him With Rackets

New York, May 26.—(AP)—James J. Hines, one-time blacksmith who became one of Tammany Hall's most powerful district leaders, was indicted today on 13 counts linking him with the policy racket gang of the slain Dutch Schultz, whose yearly "take" has been set at $100,000.

Conviction on 12 of the counts, which charged felonies, would make Hines liable to a 24-year prison sentence. The other count, charging conspiracy, is a misdemeanor, and carries a possible prison term of one year.

Hines was not in court when the indictment was handed up to Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora by an extraordinary grand

WORST AIR RAID IN CIVIL WAR IS FATAL TO SCORES

Rescuers Dig in Ruins of Alicante's Market For Victims

Alicante, Spain, May 26.—(AP)—Rescuers dug steadily today in the ruins of Alicante's shattered market place, extricating victims of yesterday's most disastrous single air bombardment of the Spanish civil war.

At least 250 persons were killed and 1,000 injured when six huge insurgent bombing planes circled suddenly in the sky and dropped their missiles squarely in the market place where hundreds of women waited in queues to buy food.

The thundering detonations toppled towering masonry into dug-outs into which men, women and children had crowded for refuge. Many bodies were torn to bits.

The casualties in the city of 70,000, which is 130 miles south of Valencia, far exceeded in proportion the disastrous series of air raids in march upon Barcelona, a city of more than 1,000,000 when there were 3,000 fatalities.

Found in Market Place
More than 100 of the victims were found in the market place alone, outside Alicante 50 were killed and hundreds injured.

Alicante caught the brunt of insurgent air attacks in which more than 100 heavy bombers shuttled back and forth all day yesterday from the island base of Mallorca to government coastal cities and towns, unloading explosives.

Sagunto, most-raided government-held city near the coast, was visited by 38 bombers which dropped 95 missiles into the town. Thirty casualties were reported and 40 buildings were destroyed and 90 others damaged.

TRY NEW KEY TO PEACE

London, May 26.—(AP)—The "hands off Spain" committee tried a new key today to the problem of keeping European peace.

The main sub-committee of the British-propelled nonintervention committee met in an attempt to get an accord between the bickering nations on the vital question of foreign participation in the civil war.

Observers saw in the meeting developments of great importance should it provide the means of getting France and Italy together and consummating the Anglo-Italian Easter friendship pact by settling the Spanish question.

The French presented compromise proposals for at least a temporary closure of her Pyrenees border as soon as international commissions begin counting heads to see how many foreign fighters are on each side in Spain.

Intention of Proposals

This proposal was intended to meet Premier Mussolini's charges that arms for Barcelona are pouring across the wide-open Pyrenees border. This dispute caused the breakdown in Italy-French friendship talks intended to produce an agreement similar to the Anglo-Italian pact.

Moreover, Britain must get Italy's blackshirts out of Spain before an agreement with Mussolini is effective. Should Mussolini rush more help to Spanish insurgents

Appeals Verdict He Charged Unlawful Fees When Mayor

Buffalo, N. Y., May 26.—(AP)—Convicted or receiving unlawful fees while in office, George J. Zimmerman, former mayor of Buffalo announced today he would appeal the verdict to the appellate division.

He was continued on his $20,000 bail pending the hearing of motions for a new trial and sentencing June 1.

Zimmerman was charged with using his influence as mayor to "cause, coerce and persuade all persons entering into contracts with the Buffalo sewer authority to write insurance and surety bonds" with the firm of Frank E. Seymour. The remaining counts charged the ex-mayor with receiving unlawful fees from Seymour.

He was continued on his $20,000 bail pending the hearing of motions for a new trial and sentencing June 1.

The superseding indictment, covering all members of the alleged conspiracy named, in addition to Hines, J. Richard "Dixie" Davis, now in jail in lieu of $75,000 bail; Bo Weinberg, believed to be dead; his brother, George; John Cooney, a fugitive; Sol G. Girsch; Harry Schoenhaus, alias Big Harry; Harry Wolf; alias Little Harry; a fugitive and Martin Weintraub.

Assistant District Attorney Charles P. Grimes said Hines is charged with entering into an agreement with Dutch Schultz, Weintraub and others in 1931 to provide protection for the racket and to act as "front" man with plant jurors and prosecutors.

Honor the Dead by Helping the Living --- Buy a Poppy!

Beginning early Saturday morning and continuing all day, members of Horace F. Ortt post No. 540, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its Auxiliary will be on the streets of Dixon selling the organization's "Buddy Poppy" to raise funds for its rehabilitation and relief program, and for aiding disabled veterans. Citizens of Dixon are urged to purchase the little red lapel flowers and aid a worthy cause.

Alternating each year with the American Legion, the local post of V. F. W. expects to distribute 3000 of the flowers on Saturday and requests the co-operation of all persons in Dixon to make the campaign a success.

On Monday, May 30, the people of Dixon and the nation will unite to pay tribute to those countless hosts who laid down their lives that America and American institutions might live. On this occasion each year, the mighty deeds of the past are recalled and honored as ideals for the present and the future.

Because of this deep significance which is attached to Memorial Day, this occasion has been selected by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States as the time for its annual Buddy Poppy distribution. Buddy Poppies are essentially flowers of memory and as long as memory of the World War lasts, the flaming red poppies of Flanders' Field will symbolize to millions of Americans the unselfish sacrifice of those who offered their lives in defense of American ideals and American security.

The V. F. W. Poppy is doubly representative of the spirit of unselfishness and sacrifice for others. Each one of the millions of Buddy Poppies to be sold in Dixon and in thousands of other cities and towns throughout the nation in conjunction with Memorial Day is painstakingly fashioned by the fingers of disabled World War veterans confined to beds or wards in government hospitals in all parts of the country. These men are paid small sums for their labor. In thousands of instances, such sums are their only private source of income—the only money they can call their own—can use for small personal needs and requirements.

Every cent of the money contributed by the citizens of Dixon and the country at large will be devoted to the cause of veteran welfare, to the protection and care of disabled veterans, to the security of their dependent wives and children, and to pro-

NOTES HAPPENS
AT CRABB TRIAL

Pekin, Ill., May 26.—(AP)—James Warner Crabb's manslaughter trial developed a new wrangle between opposing counsel today—this time over a sheaf of the prosecution's papers.

Louis B. Dunkelberg, a defense lawyer, objected that Special Attorney General John Cassidy was reading from notes when he phrased questions to R. T. Burbridge, Delavan, Ill., city marshal.

Burbridge was being questioned about events preceding the gun-shot death of Crabb's pretty young bride, Betty Collier Crabb, in the Delavan home of his father, Willis Crabb, a banker. The girl was found dying of a pistol wound shortly after she and her young husband returned from a party March 1.

Cassidy retorted to Dunkelberg that "I'm not using notes, look for yourself," and tossed a pad of papers across the counsel table. Dunkelberg took it and quietly slipped from the court room.

State's Attorney Reynburn L. Russell hurried after him but reported on his return he was unable to retrieve the pad.

Declaring he "couldn't proceed without them," Cassidy instructed Sheriff Ralph Goar to search for the missing papers.

Judge Joseph E. Daily ordered a recess.

Cross examination of E. G. Ringo, aged night policeman at Delavan, opened today's session.

That statement was made last night in reply to a letter from Judge Brady M. Stewart of Louisville, who had written President Roosevelt that federal relief agencies were using "reprehensible" measures in support of Senator Barkley (D-Ky.). Stewart is campaign manager for Gov. A. B. Chandler, Barkley's opponent in the August primary.

Declaring that Stewart's charges were general, Hopkins invited him to submit specific instances of political coercion, and added:

"I have used every channel of communication available to make clear to employees and project workers of this administration that their political beliefs and activities would in no way jeopardize

Government Will Accept Offer To Pay Huge Fines

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—The government will accept an offer of 14 oil companies and 11 individuals to pay $400,000 in fines if a federal judge admits their pleas of "nolo contendere" to charges of violating the anti-trust laws.

The application will come before Judge Patrick B. Stone at Madison, Wis., June 2. The firms are among 22 companies accused of making unlawful agreements to fix profit margins for midwestern gasoline jobbers.

Attorney General Cummings said yesterday the offer "may be regarded as a complete capitulation on their part," although a plea of nolo contendere merely accepts penalties without confession of guilt.

The Texan did not name the

Administrator Hopkins Accused of Making the WPA a Political Weapon

Plan Censure of His Endorsement of A Demo Candidate

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—Anti-administration members considered today asking the senate to censure an informal endorsement by WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins of Representative Otha Wear-Baker's candidacy for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Iowa.

Senator Johnson (R-Calif.) was understood to be drafting a censure resolution after colleagues of Senator Gillette (D-Iowa), against whom Wearin is campaigning, angrily accused Hopkins of making a political weapon of the Works Progress Administration.

Although Hopkins made no comment on the criticism voiced in the senate yesterday, he reiterated his intention to see that all WPA workers were free to vote as they wish.

That statement was made last night in reply to a letter from Judge Brady M. Stewart of Louisville, who had written President Roosevelt that federal relief agencies were using "reprehensible" measures in support of Senator Barkley (D-Ky.). Stewart is campaign manager for Gov. A. B. Chandler, Barkley's opponent in the August primary.

TO SPRINGFIELD

B. J. Frazer, principal of the high school, went to Springfield late yesterday afternoon where he was called to attend the legislative committee meeting of the Illinois State Teachers association. There are 18 districts of the organization in the state and Mr. Frazer represents the local area. He returned to Dixon this morning.

ROSS KIDNAPER APPEALS CASE CIRCUIT COURT

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—Counsel for John Henry Seadlund, contended in oral arguments before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today that the Lindbergh kidnapping law under which he was sentenced to death is unconstitutional.

Floyd E. Thompson and Frederick Burnham, court-appointed attorneys for Seadlund, whose scheduled execution April 19 was postponed pending the appeal, argued that Congress had no power to define and punish the crime of kidnapping and the decision should be set aside.

Seadlund, who kidnaped Charles S. Ross, a retired greeting card manufacturer September 25, was not in court. Ross subsequently was found slain in a hideout near Spooner, Wis., after Seadlund's arrest in California.

An early decision in the appeal was expected. Thompson said he was undecided whether an appeal would be taken to the United States Supreme Court in case of an adverse ruling.

Michael L. Igoe, United States District Attorney, asking that the sentence be affirmed, argued that, while the Lindbergh law had not been passed on by the United States Supreme Court, recent decisions had reiterated the right of Congress to regulate interstate commerce. Kidnaping, he contended, comes under the interstate commerce clause of the Federal constitution.

Reading a prepared statement to the committee while Lilienthal and A. E. Morgan sat nearby, the present TVA chairman asserted:

"To the members of this committee Congress has given the responsibility of determining the facts concerning the TVA controversy which Arthur Morgan has precipitated.

"The directors of the authority pledge this committee our complete co-operation to the end that all of the facts may be obtained. We are proud of the job that the authority has done, sometimes under the most difficult circumstances, and we are glad to present an account of our stewardship."

Referring to himself and Lilienthal, the 70-year-old witness asserted that "we assure the committee desires to hear us on the charges that Arthur Morgan has made, and also on our charge that Dr. Morgan, while a member of the board, seriously obstructed and interfered with the board's efforts to carry out the directions of Congress as stated in the TVA act."

Opens New Office

Dr. Tim Sullivan has opened an office in the Central Trust Building at Sterling, his practice to be limited to diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sullivan of this city, his father having been in the drug business in Dixon for many years.

Dr. Sullivan was graduated from the University of Chicago Medical School, following which he served a year's internship at Mercy hospital in Chicago. The past two years have been spent in graduate training in the fields of eye, ear, nose and throat at Passavant Memorial hospital and Northwestern University Medical School clinics in Chicago.

MORGAN HIT BY LILIENTHAL ON STAND FOR TVA

Accuses Him of Trying to Defeat And Block Authority

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—David E. Lilienthal, Tennessee Valley Authority director, testified before a congressional committee today that Arthur E. Morgan, former TVA chairman, tried to "defeat and obstruct the authority" in litigation involving its constitutionality.

The 38-year-old Harvard law school graduate took the stand to answer charges made against him yesterday by Morgan.

Earlier, Harcourt A. Morgan, the other TVA director, told the 10-man investigating committee that Arthur Morgan conducted a "campaign of dissent and obstruction" to discredit the TVA program.

Presenting his testimony in a series of prepared statements, Lilienthal said the former chairman's efforts to obstruct the authority took place in litigation before a special court in Chattanooga.

He added that he would give details on that matter and "the conduct of Arthur Morgan in respect to the so-called Berry Marble claims."

Eased His Work
Yesterday Dr. Arthur Morgan asserted the other two directors had engaged in a "deliberate" attempt to "make things easy" for Senator Berry (D-Tenn) in prosecuting claims against the government.

Before taking up the ousted director's charges in detail, Lilienthal expressed resentment that Dr. Morgan had made charges which were interpreted as "criminal corruption" on the part of the other two directors.

"Arthur Morgan now says, almost three months later, that he did not intend to charge Dr. Harcourt Morgan and myself with corruption," Lilienthal said. "But he did permit that construction of his charges to lay like a black cloud over us and our staff all of these intervening weeks, without raising a finger to dispel it."

A similar sentiment was expressed earlier in the day by H. A. Morgan, now TVA's chairman. H. A. Morgan also told the committee that instead of forming a "coalition and conspiracy" against Chairman Morgan as the latter charged, the two directors had sought to prevent a one-man rule.

The former chairman, H. A. Morgan asserted, resented the actions of the other directors because "he was disabled from dictating all action and from exercising a veto power."

Testifying before a joint congressional inquiry committee, Morgan, now TVA chairman, asserted that A. E. Morgan had gone beyond "proper limits" in disagreeing with other members of the TVA board and had "seriously obstructed the work of this agency of the federal government."

Charges Collision
A. E. Morgan testified before the congressional committee yesterday, making lengthy charges of "collusion, conspiracy and mismanagement" against H. A. Morgan and the other TVA director, David E. Lilienthal.

Reading a prepared statement to the committee while Lilienthal and A. E. Morgan sat nearby, the present TVA chairman asserted:

"To the members of this committee Congress has given the responsibility of determining the facts concerning the TVA controversy which Arthur Morgan has precipitated.

"The directors of the authority pledge this committee our complete co-operation to the end that all of the facts may be obtained. We are proud of the job that the authority has done, sometimes under the most difficult circumstances, and we are glad to present an account of our stewardship."

FORMER COUNTY MAN NOW TRAPS WILD ANIMALS

Frank Hoyle Is Subject of Interesting Texas Feature Story

Frank Hoyle, son of Lester Hoyle of Palmyra township, is the subject of an interesting article being featured in southwestern states, where he is in the employ of the government and engaged in the trapping of wild animals which each year cause heavy losses to farmers and cattle raisers. Frank has quite an extensive museum at his home on the River road and many of the finest specimens of his art as a taxidermist are on display at the George Aschenbrenner Roundup on First street.

Mrs. R. T. McGill, feature writer for the Wichita Falls, Texas, Record News, is the writer of the following article which pertains to the activities of Trapper Hoyle:

Nestled back in the hills of King county, far from the gay life of the big and busy cities, lives Frank Hoyle, government trapper. Hoyle's closest trading point is Guthrie, although a village of only a few hundred inhabitants, it is headquarters for the famous Burnett's 6666 ranch, which is known throughout the United States as one of America's greatest cattle domains.

Hoyle's life work is, and has been for many years, extinguishing the lowly coyote, bobcat and wildcat that prey upon the cattle, calves and sheep of west and southwest Texas, doing thousands of dollars damage annually.

Works for Government

Hoyle, native of Illinois, 35 and single, has made trapping a life study. After plying his trade in the northwestern states for a number of years, he came to Texas in 1933 and was immediately employed by the state and assigned to several southwest Texas counties where the much despised coyote was doing the most damage.

In April, 1936, after getting the coyote situation well in hand in south Texas counties in which he worked, Hoyle was transferred to King county, with an assignment to work on the various ranches throughout the county, one of which is 6666.

The 4-6 ranch (as it is commonly known) has more than 200,000 acres under fence, and when Hoyle arrived in Guthrie to assume his duties, he was told in a joking manner by George Humphreys, superintendent of the ranch and also sheriff of King county, that there was one coyote for each of the 200,000 acres. However, after several weeks work on the ranch, Hoyle was to believe Humphreys' statement true.

Music to His Ears

Any night in the fall or winter, one can sit by the fire in the abandoned school house at south camp on the 4-6 where the trapper lives, and hear what seems to be hundreds of coyotes yelping in the distance. Now and then one ventures near the camp and lets out a yelp or two, the most pitiful sounding of all animal cries. This, of course, is music to the ears of Trapper Hoyle, for within a radius of miles and miles around, he has dozens of steel traps set with their jaws open, and that he knows that before morning many of the creatures will find their way into the carefully camouflaged teeth.

The coyote, according to Hoyle, shows almost human intelligence at times, and is considered by trappers one of the smartest and hardest to catch of all animals. Shrewd judgment must be manifested in the baiting and setting of traps for this always suspicious animal.

"Catch" Takes Weeks

"Scent" is generally used for baiting of the traps. Many times a dead carcass is used to lure the animal into the jaws of the waiting traps. Where a carcass is available, the trapper looks it over and if it has not been touched by a wolf or coyote, then he is very apt to set his trap near the dead animal. If the carcass shows signs that a wolf or coyote has been present, the trap is moved back approximately 15 yards and "scent" is used. It is a well known fact that the suspicious animal always circles the dead animal at about this distance before approaching.

Many are the times when a dead carcass is not available. In this case, the trapper must find fresh tracks, or signs showing that the coyote frequents a certain spot. Often then, with the use of "scent" a trap will be carefully camouflaged under the loose dirt and the catch usually followed.

Hoyle states that he often spends weeks and weeks trying to catch one of the older and more crafty animals. If one has ever been caught and manages in some way to escape the trap, it is a difficult matter ever to entice him to get another foot into one.

Crawls into Cave

The bobcat or wildcat, both of which Hoyle has dealt with quite extensively, are considered very "tough customers" by all trappers. They are not so cunning as the coyote, however, in Hoyle's opinion. Several months ago while back in the "breaks" of the J. Y. ranch also in King county, Hoyle sighted a wildcat within shooting distance. At about the same time the cat sighted the approaching man. One shot from the trapper's ever-ready 30-30 broke the creature's leg, but he managed to scramble into a nearby cave, followed closely by Hoyle.

With gun and flash light in front of him, the pursuing trapper entered the cave. Crawling on his hands and knees 45 feet back into the enclosure, and to within eight feet of the growling wildcat, one carefully aimed bullet ended its life. Hoyle dragged him out and carried him back to camp. Hoyle had a similar experience with a coyote on the Ross ranch.

Year Round Season

The trapping season for the government man runs the year around. During the hot summer months, neither the coyote or the bobcat prowls as much as when the weather is cooler. Therefore, the "catch" is not nearly so great during these months. This is because there is plenty to eat during the summer, though Hoyle explains that the animals are always poorest at this season of the year.

The real trapping season generally starts about Oct. 1, and as the weather becomes colder, the "catch" gets better. October, November and December are considered by far the best trapping months for the coyote and bobcat, as well as for most other wild animals. Hoyle now operates a 100-traps, 100-mile line that must be looked after daily.

Imitates Rabbit Cry

A valuable trick which the trapper has mastered by his years of experience, is that of hiding in

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pain, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

the "breaks" and imitating the cry of the hurt rabbit, thereby luring the coyote to within shooting distance. He has killed as many as five in one morning by using this ruse.

A picture is made of every animal, if possible, before it is removed from the trap. This is a government requirement.

Neither the bobcat nor coyote will attack a human being, says Hoyle, unless wounded or in a trap, then they are apt to put up a fight.

Ranchmen estimate that one lobo wolf can do hundreds of dollars damage in one year, killing calves and sheep, and often Hoyle receives calls from neighboring ranchmen in various parts of the county, where coyotes are molesting calves, sheep, chickens and turkeys. It becomes his duty to go to the ranchman's rescue and set traps in the vicinity where the damage is being done. This additional work does not interfere with the working of his regular line.

Hours are Long

Many days in the busy season when trapping is at its height, Hoyle leaves his "headquarters" long before daylight and does not return until late at night. He never carries lunch with him, explaining that he does not become hungry while going about his duties.

Once each month, all hides are shipped to San Antonio, government headquarters in Texas, where they are sold at public auction. The money obtained from this source is used to help defray the trapper's expenses.

He Eats Rattlesnakes

Dozens of government trappers are now employed in the Texas Panhandle, west Texas and south-west Texas, trying to exterminate the despised coyote. According to Hoyle, it will be years before the animal will become extinct, but it will eventually be accomplished except along the Mexican border. "They will always cross the Rio Grande into Texas until the Mexican government places trappers on the other side of the river," says Hoyle.

Hoyle, a quiet but sociable personage, never becomes lonely, possibly because he is too busy and has become accustomed to the solitary life. He seems to be one of the few men engaged in the occupation he loves. At times an invitation is extended some interested party to come out and run the lines with him, promising them an opportunity to feast on fried rattlesnake, another venomous creature that lurks in every few feet of the ranch country of northwest Texas, but Hoyle's favorite dish, nevertheless.

CONGRESSMAN WILL ROGERS RIVAL'S USE OF NAME

Oklahoma City (AP)—There will be two candidates named Will Rogers in the Oklahoma Democratic primary unless the protest of Congressman Will Rogers is upheld. The congressman has challenged the filing of an Oklahoma City Will Rogers as a candidate to oppose him for the nomination as congressman-at-large.

FALSE TEETH

Can Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their teeth dropped or slipped at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline powder, on your plates. Makes false teeth stay in place and feel comfortable all day long. Sweetens breath. Get FASTEETH at any drug store. Accept no substitute.

Scholarships Are Available to High School Graduates

The following scholarships are available to graduates of recognized high schools of the state of Illinois:

1. County scholarships, University of Illinois, based upon a competitive examination held in the office of County Superintendent of Schools, Saturday, June 4th, 9:00 A. M. to 4:30 P. M. Details may be secured by writing or phoning W. L. Pickering, county superintendent.

2. Scholarships in Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Illinois, also based on a competitive examination at the office of county superintendent June 4. Candidates for this scholarship should secure application forms from the Farmers' Institute office at Springfield and file not later than May 31.

3. Normal School Scholarship, all Illinois Normal Schools, available to student ranking highest in graduating class. If student ranking highest does not care to use the principal may assign the scholarship to the next one in rank. Any recipient, however, must be in the upper one-fourth of the class.

4. General Assembly, University of Illinois. Each member of the General Assembly is authorized to nominate and appoint annually one person of school age who shall by virtue of this appointment receive a certificate of scholarship in the University of Illinois.

5. Children of soldiers, sailors and marines who were killed in action or died between April 6, 1917, and July 2, 1921. These scholarships are good for attending any Illinois educational institution of a secondary or college grade, a business college or any high school or vocational training school. $150 per pupil is available under the provisions of the above act which was amended July 9, 1937. For questions concerning any of the above scholarships phone or write office of county superintendent of schools.

JAPANESE TESTS INDICATE HEALTH GAINS FOR MEN

Tokyo (AP)—The Japanese are growing taller, gaining weight, getting smarter, and becoming more free of disease, army statistics show.

Figures compiled from the physical examination of men conscripted in 1937 placed the average height of the rookies at five feet, four and one-eighth inches, compared to five feet, four inches the year before. Average weight jumped from 115 pounds, four ounces to an ounce heavier.

An average of 85 men out of every 1,000 were found to be suffering from trachoma (eye disease), as against 90 per 1,000 for the year before.

Ten out of every 1,000 were rejected because of venereal disease, as against 12 per 1,000 in 1936.

Illiteracy dropped from 3.1 per thousand to 3.

WHAT'S IN A MAN?

What's in a man? Well, to begin with, there's about a nickel's worth of iodine, forty quarts of water, and enough sulphur to kill the fleas on a small dog. There's phosphorus enough for a year's supply of matches, iron to make a small nail, and lime enough to whitewash a chicken-coop. Break a man down on the scrap-heap, and he's hardly worth a cent a pound.

But there's something more in a man, something that turns a chemical machine into a living being, something that makes that machine form the notes of a symphony, spell the words of a poem, and seek to unlock the doors to the treasures and mysteries of life.

What's in a man? There's love, hate, revenge, lust, honor, hope, and despair. There's a force that makes him explore the unknown, and a fatality that sends him out to kill in the shot and shell of war.

In this day when the frontiers of the world dwindle under the push of knowledge, the frontiers of the human mind remain dim and distant, hidden secrets in the greatest drama of all.

What's in a man? Who knows! Kin of the gods and brother of the beasts, man remains the great unknown, the greatest of all mysteries.

THE 49th STATE

Hawaii, land of tropic skies, hula girls, and sunny beaches! Hawaii, the land that has everything!

Everything? Well, perhaps there is just one more thing—the rights of statehood! Shall Hawaii become the 49th state? That question, asked with increasing seriousness in recent months, is currently agitating the land of grass skirts and foaming waves. Keystone of America's Pacific defense, sugar-bowl to millions of American families, oasis for America's rich, Hawaii is daily playing a more and more important role in American life, a role which seems to justify the right of statehood.

Why is Hawaii not a state? The prime reason can be found in the 40 per cent of her population owing allegiance to their mother country, Japan. Picture the key to Japanese defense dominated by a block of citizens owing allegiance to a foreign country, but possessing the rights of American citizenship! Picture the military and naval might of Hawaii surrounded by a civil government dominated by Japanese voters!

As long as the clouds of a possible Pacific war hang low over Diamond Head, the Hawaiian Islands, despite their pineapples, sugar, surf-boards, flowers, volcanoes, and Waikiki sands, are destined to remain, at least in the eyes of the federal government, just pawns in a naval chess game. As long as that condition remains, statehood for Hawaii, much as she seems to deserve it, is just a mirage on the tropic horizon.

A HAND FOR YOUR HEART

That heart of yours, pounding away in your chest, give it a hand and it will pile up a most impressive record. Day in and day out, at the rate of 100,800 strokes every 24 hours, that machine of tissue and muscle is heading towards a record of 2,437,344,000 beats in a normal life.

With increasing frequency, however, the speed and pace of modern life is wearing out man's most important machine short of those two million beats. In figures just released by the U. S. Public Health Service, heart failure, as a cause of death, has shown a most alarming leap.

The throb of your heart is the pulse of life. Pumped by this amazing machine, the body's six and one-half quarts of blood are forced every minute through the 100,000 miles of arteries, veins, and capillaries that make up your body. Imagine a five inch machine strong enough to pump a stream halfway to the moon—your heart does that every day.

Mighty important, that heart of yours! Give it a hand—don't go in for excessive exertion, don't get too fat, don't be a chronic worrier—and your heart will hand you years of life. Let the increasing heart disease toll be a warning. Give your heart a hand!

THE AVERAGE DRIVER

That mass of tangled wreckage blocking the highway, that twisted body being lifted into the waiting ambulance, those scrambled machines, grotesque caricatures of what were once shiny new automobiles! When you see those things, don't shudder complacently! Don't say, "Won't they ever stop those driving fools!" Don't look away and tut-tut! For it's you, a normal driver, who is responsible for most of the death-dealing traffic crashes.

It's not the drunken driver, or the defective driver, or even the accident-prone driver that piles up the toll of dead and injured. It's the millions of perfectly normal motorists, sober, sane, and even relatively careful, who daily smash cars and bodies into broken steel and corpses.

With 75 per cent of the nation's accidents caused by normal drivers, traffic experts are putting more emphasis on giving them a helping hand. To end the confusion of just what that waving arm up ahead really means, they urge uniform traffic laws for all states. To give the motorist the best possible chance in the daily traffic battle, they plan increasingly rigid inspection of brakes, lights, and other driving equipment.

When next you pass the remnants of somebody's mistake cluttering up the highway, let it be with the feeling, "Perhaps some just like me, a normal driver, caused the pain, suffering, and tragedy that came with that accident." Think of that, and you'll be a better and safer driver.

WASHINGTON — One good gauge of how serious the Germans are about getting into Czechoslovakia is that the Italians have moved troops to the border of Tunis in North Africa to work a squeeze play on France.

This is extremely significant. Inhabited by more Italians than Frenchmen, Tunis long has been a sore spot in French-Italian relations, especially in recent months when Mussolini has made a specialty of stirring up the Moslem races against the French and British.

To concentrate Italian troops near the Tunisian border, therefore, means tying up the French at their own back door. This, in turn, makes it more difficult for them to move at their front door—which is Czechoslovakia.

This squeeze play undoubtedly was worked out by Hitler and Mussolini during their recent Roman love-feast. It indicates how wide of the mark the British shot in thinking they could drive a wedge between them. (Also how wide of the mark Roosevelt shot in blessing the Anglo-Italian agreement.)

Spanish Airdromes

French hands also are tied at their side door by the fact that Italy and Germany have established a row of underground airdromes in Spain just south of the French border. Located 300 feet underground, therefore impervious to bombing, these airdromes fly the Italian and German flags, and according to military observers, Spaniards are not allowed to come near.

In case France should oppose Germany in Czechoslovakia, planes from these airdromes could be over important French cities in thirty minutes.

Note—This is not the first time Mussolini has worked an international squeeze play. Last summer when the British were about to send ships from the Mediterranean to the China coast in order to tone down Japanese aggression, Il Duce started his submarine piracy campaign, thus forcing British ships to remain in Mediterranean waters.

Texas Brezce

The lives of diplomats are regulated by protocol, from picking up a salad fork to making a formal call at the White House. So they were astounded when a member of Congress barged into a dozen embassies last week and asked to talk with the boss.

The Congressman was Maury Maverick of Texas who knows little of protocol and cares less. The fact that it is definitely "anti-protocolaire" for a Congressman to transact business directly with a foreign diplomat didn't bother him in the least.

Maverick wanted to promote his bill for improving relations with Latin America, and he thought a little support from the Latin diplomats might help the cause.

The diplomats were delighted with him—after they caught their breath. They are accustomed to deal only with officials of the State Department.

Unfazed Smokes

Although totally unaware of it, there are hundreds of thousands of jobless and aged people in all parts of the country who have a direct stake in an unnoticed sideline bill introduced the other day by Representative Harry Haines of Pennsylvania.

Haines' measure is aimed at breaking up a racket now costing a number of States between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 a year in relief and old-age pension revenues. The racket is being worked on the cigarette taxes which many States enacted to produce these funds.

It works as follows: House-to-house canvassers solicit orders for cigarettes at tax-free prices. . . . The purchases are then sent to the buyer through the mails with no indication on the package of the nature of its contents or the identity of the sender.

State authorities have been trying to scotch the racket by all sorts of devices—so far unsuccessfully, for the single reason that they cannot meddle with the mails.

Early this season they proposed empowering state inspectors to examine packages in post offices. Chairman Jim Mead of the House Post Office Committee vetoed this immediately. He readily conceded the need for legislation to plug the tax loophole, but vigorously opposed any method that gave state officials authority to tamper with the mails.

Finally, after a long study, Haines evolved a proposal which is very simple and may prove effective. It provides that "any parcel containing any cigarettes deposited in the United States mails for mailing or delivery shall, unless sent as a gift, be plainly marked on the outside with the word 'cigarettes' and the name and address of the sender."

Telegraph Speed

Employees of the two telegraphic companies—Postal and Western Union—estimate that a recent speech by Senator Neely of West Virginia has speeded up telegraphic service about 50 per cent.

Last November the telegraph companies laid off about 5,000 monitors—people employed to check the speed of telegrams—and as a result the time of transmission through relay stations increased from 5 minutes to 30 minutes or even more.

Neely called attention to this in a Senate speech early in April, and demanded an investigation of the entire telegraphic industry. On April 27, the companies reinstated a large number of monitors. Speed of service immediately picked up.

Note—Wonder what will happen after Congress adjourns?

Merry-Go-Round

The President may be keeping hands off Democratic primary contests, but he has left no doubt how he feels about Representative Jerry O'Connell of Montana. When Roosevelt signed O'Connell's bill setting up a "little TVA" on the Ft. Peck dam project, he sent him the pen with a letter addressed "Dear Jerry," warmly lauding his work in Congress. The letter means a lot in Montana because Senator Wheeler has put one of his lieutenants into the field against O'Connell. . . . The LaFollette brothers are not the only ones who have launched a new political party.

Dr. Francis Townsend, author of the old-age pension plan, has announced in his weekly organ that there will be a "Townsend Party" in California with a complete slate of congressional candidates. . . . Opening sentence of an article by William Hard, G. O. P. braintruster, in The National Republican: "Now is the time for every Republican to see if he—or she—can think of a thought!"

LYNN DECLINES AS SHOE CENTER OF THE NATION

Skilled Handicraft Being Replaced By New Machines

The threat—which became news—of nine shoe manufacturers of Lynn, Massachusetts, either to liquidate their holdings or move out, calls attention to a troubled modern industry that was once the leader in its field and a model followed by the world.

Domestic and foreign competition, falling markets, and friction inside the factories have been blamed for the sickness that has come upon this trade that made Lynn famous, a business that now employs about 3,500 workers where 10,000 were formerly kept busy.

"As far back as 1795," recalls a bulletin from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic Society, "Lynn turned out 300,000 pairs of shoes. Well-established by then, shoe-making was Industry Number One both in origin and in importance."

A Pioneer Trade

"Settled in 1629, Lynn received its town charter in 1631. Four years later a couple of skilled shoemakers moved in near a tannery already set up, and went to work."

"Geographical and other factors made this part of the country ideal for the craft. Useful in tanning processes were the near-by forests of hemlock and oak. Swift-flowing streams provided water power. New England fisheries furnished oil to soften the leather. And Yankee skippers were soon to bring shiploads of hides to waiting workmen."

"Boston and other towns took up the art; but Lynn was supreme, especially in the field of women's shoes. By the end of the 18th century she counted among her citizens some 200 master craftsmen, with 600 journeymen and apprentices."

"Export trade expanded, in response to demand by the growing country. 'Massachusetts,' wrote Baron Dupin to Napoleon III in the thirties of the 19th century, 'makes by millions boots and shoes necessary for the new population which is developed with so much rapidity in the immense basin of the Mississippi.'"

Factories Banish "Gentle Craft"
"Until the Civil War, the skilled workman, with his awl, hammer and lapstone, was the acknowledged Titan of this anciently-known 'gentle craft.'"

"Around that time, however, forces came into play that were eventually to reduce the shoe craftsman to the status of mere machine tender. Elias Howe's sewing machine ushered in an age of invention for the art that had changed little in all the preceding centuries. Within a short time men brought more than a hundred old hand-operations under machine control, and paved the way for still other improvements. In addition, enormous impetus to the new machine era was provided by the war itself, which brought the sudden, urgent need for shoes to equip marching armies."

"There is a story that Mayor Peter Neal of Lynn explained to President Lincoln that one of the new machines could sew around the sole of a shoe in thirty seconds."

"Friend Neal," remarked Mr. Lincoln, "go home and buy real estate. The day of the little country shops is coming to an end. Shoes will be made in big factories in cities."

"With the ensuing change in methods, resulting inevitably in human displacement and social distress, came friction and strikes. But recent primary election, is the first northern Democrat who voted against both the wage-hour and reorganization bills to get the axe. (Copyright, 1938, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Lynn carried on under the new system, and remained—until toward the end of the 19th century—the country's leading shoe center. King Edward VII of England had his shoes and those of his royal family made here.

Model for the World

"While today shoes no longer march at the head of Lynn's industrial parade (the city having turned to diversified products for its living), shoe manufacturers and shoe wearers everywhere still owe a debt to this town and state for the model on which the modern world industry was based."

"In Massachusetts all the important changes in machinery and factory methods were originated. From this state came the settlers who founded the great shoe manufacturing trade of the Middle West and set the famous plants of St. Louis, Missouri, to humming."

"A Czechoslovakian, Charles Bata, came to Lynn to learn the shoe business. Returning home, he built a huge and efficient shoe plant, one equipped for speedy production at low cost."

"In many foreign countries, American machines have long been used to make footwear. Under patent laws, these machines are now produced in the country where they are to be operated. South America, for example, used to import vast shipments of shoes from Massachusetts. Later they leased our machinery, today they make their own."

"The robot age, moreover, while responsible for the impressive growth of the shoe industry in the last century, is accountable for another product now adding to shoe men's worries. The automobile takes so many Americans off their feet that they wear out fewer shoes than they used to—a situation to which is attributed a lessening shoe demand."

Mexican Field Trip Planned by Students

Urbana, Ill., May 26.—(AP)—Prospects of a Mexican wilds vacation, collecting wildlife from mosquitoes to mountain lions, made five University of Illinois students impatient today for the end of the school term.

They had their gear collected in a special truck in which they planned to leave the campus June 7 on a 7,000 mile trek to last until the middle of September. They will climb a 12,500 foot mountain near Monterey and study fauna and flora in tropical forests along the Pacific Ocean.

Harry Hoogstraal, of Chicago, senior in entomology, will lead and finance the field trip. Frank Cronican, of Homewood, a junior, will be the interpreter and assistant entomologist.

Joe Koestner, of Piper City, a senior, will be the zoologist and Wilbur Dunn of Chicago, a junior, the assistant biologist and mechanic.

Richard Schneider of Kankakee, who will be graduated in law in June, will act as the expert in the field of his hobby, botany.

The word museum comes from mouseion, a Greek name given anciently to a temple of the Muses.

DREAM FACES

The faces that we see in dreams
Are radiant, as if gleams
From some diviner world than this;
A sweeter sadder tenderness
Darkens the depths of floating eyes.
A more seraphic beauty lies
On lip and brow than ever yet
The gaze of waking mortal met.
O blessed mystery of sleep?
That call recall from out of the deep
Of vanished years, and from the tomb,
The loved and lost to life and bloom,
That makes each memory a bright
Reality, and fills the night
With gladness and sweet thoughts that stay
Like lingering perfume through the day.

BISHOP OFFERS PALACE SHELTER IN CASE OF AIR RAID
Salisbury, Eng. (AP)—If and when enemy planes start bombing Britain, many people in Salisbury probably will hide under the Bishop's "palace."

Dr. Neville Lovett, Bishop of Salisbury, has offered the city a private bomb-proof shelter beneath his official residence.

Air raid precautions officers who inspected the shelter said even the heaviest bombs couldn't reach it.

Sunshine Class Enjoys Meeting

The Sunshine class met at St. Paul's Lutheran church last Thursday evening. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Wickiey. After singing several songs the class united in repeating the Lord's prayer. The scripture lesson, Luke 12, 1-10 was read by Mrs. Pollett. Mrs. Charles Bremmer, secretary, read the minutes. Sixteen members responded to roll call. After hearing the treasurer's report, ways of earning money were discussed. A committee consisting of the following ladies was appointed: Mrs. Martenson, Bremer, Schultz and Nosworthy to have charge of the rummage sale at the church Saturday, May 29. Members were asked to bring their donations in Friday afternoon. A scramble supper was planned for the next meeting, June 17. Several interesting poems and short articles were read by Mrs. Tobias Sweitzer, Mrs. Addie Eastman, Mrs. Jennie Reese, Mrs. Charles Spielman. The meeting was closed by singing and repeating the Mizpah benediction. Mrs. Mae Perkins, Ida Tetrick, Ellen Nosworthy and Mrs. Charles Halquist served dainty refreshments during the social hour.

KING'S GUARDS—

The King's Guards of the Methodist church held a meeting Friday, May 20 in the church parlors with a scramble supper at 6 o'clock. Mrs. A. I. Hardy the leader, and her girls, were the hostesses for the evening, entertaining the mothers with a fine supper and an interesting program. A. I. Hardy furnished several musical numbers which were much enjoyed, and Mrs. Hardy gave readings, followed by piano solos and poems. A report of the year's work was given and the missionary offering received.

Dramatic Club Plans Two One-Act Plays

"A Romance of the Past," and "Like Mistress, Like Maid," two one-act plays will be presented by the Four Star dramatic club in the near future. The role of Mrs. Buffet, a landlady of the Ploughshare Inn will be portrayed by Hazel Lawson. Due to a heavy rain, Wilbur Weiser as Captain Herbert, and Wilma Weiser as Lady Gilmore, are forced to put up for the night at the Ploughshare Inn. Lady Gilmore pretends to expect a husband to avoid the attentions of a stranger who arrived in the same carriage, and is placed in a very embarrassing position when the landlady, thinking Captain Herbert is the expected husband, sends him to her room. But all ends well.

This hilarious comedy takes one back to the early New England days. In "Like Mistress, Like Maid," Josephine Hollingsworth portrays Colonel Windsor's daughter, Margaret Windsor, who cleverly pretends to be a maid servant in order that she might gain an opinion of Major DeLain, George Lawson, who has come to England to propose marriage to Miss Windsor, because his father and Colonel Windsor, bosom pals, desire union between the two families. As the title of the play implies, the major falls in love with the maid instead of the mistress.

The cast in both plays deserve much credit for their quick-witted conversation and ability to act, which they carry on exceptionally well for amateurs. Musical interludes will include: Evelyn and Geraldine McNeil, choir and dancing; the Melody Maids, choir and duet; Josephine Hollingsworth, choir, solo, dancing and acting; the Melodettes of WROK, choir and duet; Gladys and Vera Lehman, piano, guitar and choir; Lois Horton, guitar and choir; Thelma Weiser, dancing and choir; Lyle Selover, talented young pianist. There will be Hawaiian dancing in costume furnished by Four Star members and Thelma Weiser of the Labboe club. Tickets are now being sold by the following Four Star club members: Evelyn and Geraldine McNeil, Mildred and Meredith McMillon, Lyle Selover, Barbara Williams, Thelma Weiser, Frances Culver, Kathryn Smith, Lois Horton, Gladys and Vera Lehman, Jessie and Marie Weaver, and Josephine Hollingsworth.

Homecoming Enjoyed At Pine Creek Church

A large crowd of members, former members and friends of the Pine Creek Christian church at Pennsylvania Corners gathered yesterday to enjoy the fellowship of the annual homecoming. It is estimated that over 150 people from widely scattered areas were in attendance.

A sumptuous dinner was spread at the noon hour in the basement of the church. A committee of ladies from the church did the serving in the gracious and efficient manner for which they have earned an enviable reputation. Mrs. Verne Straw acted as registrar for the occasion and succeeded in getting a complete enrollment of all visitors present.

Following the dinner, the crowd assembled in the auditorium where a brief and somewhat informal program was carried out in charge of Mrs. Mary Wragg. Upon singing "America" Rev. L. V. Lovell, pastor of Polo Christian church was called upon for the opening prayer. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Anderson, of Dixon, contributed a piano duet. An interesting missionary pageant was presented by six ladies of the Dixon Guild, entitled, "New Ways for Old." The ladies participating were, Mrs. Winifred Wells, Mrs. L. H. Perkins, Mrs. Lorraine Bristow, Mrs. Glynn Allen, Mrs. O. D. Flanagan, Miss Lena Netz and little Nancy Schertner, A piano solo was contributed by Mrs. Cunningham, pianist of the church. Old-time members and friends were called upon for reminiscences or words of greeting. Mrs. Ella Rhodes, of Dixon, former member and the oldest present, gave some very interesting remarks in which she called attention to the widely scattered influences carried into many parts of the country by former residents and members of the church. Mrs. Emma Seyster, whose husband, Rev. D. F. Seyster, built the present edifice, gave some interesting facts about the work in former years. She was followed by her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Straw who spoke briefly upon the influence of the church. Other interesting talks were given by H. W. Stauffer, of Dixon, Mr. Winters and Rev. Lovell of Polo. The occasion also served as a welcome to the new pastor, Rev. H. W. Wiltz and wife who have recently been installed here and at Mt. Morris. The closing prayer was by Rev. James A. Barnett, pastor of the Dixon Christian church.

Dixon-Made Movie Is To Be Shown Tonight

"Movie Queen" was previewed this afternoon in a matinee for school children at which time each child was given free ice cream. The performance will be repeated tonight for adults. Doors of the high school auditorium will be opened at 7:30 P. M. and the curtain is called for 8:15 P. M.

Moving pictures of all Dixon will be shown and a cast of 65 will present a 3 act musical comedy stage show. Included in the cast:

Jean Thompson, the movie queen; Bud Haupt, Jimmy Cain; Leone Ort, Marlene Starbo; Mrs. Lee Lambert, Madame Barrowski; Tom Murphy, Monsieur Flowers; James Ketchen, Goldstein; John Mills, Director Von Von Heim; Paul Potts, Barrymore Cohen; John Crabtree, Kenyon; Bob Bovey, Dave; Russell Brown; Abe; Harry Kelley, Dick Belcher; Harold Coffee, Jack McKim as the 4 yes-men; Lyle Myers as Mr. Suave; Murphy Stanley as the newsboy and Jim Curran as Clancy the cop.

Among the high school girls who take part in the dancing choruses are: Helen Keller, Betty Keller, Alice Losil, Beverly McBride, Jeanette Pelton, Goldie Schumacher, Audrey Summers, Mary J. Hoberg, Dorothy Miller, B. J. Heck, Ruth Schumacher, Edwina Burket, Charlotte Henson, Marilyn Crawford, Marjorie Kuhn, Mary Lucille James and Cheryl Stetson.

Modeling for Kathryn Beard in the stage show are: Elsie Neff, Lois Wolf, Maxine McGinnis, Betty Moersbacher, Pearl Neff and Margaret Hoffman. Gowns for every hour of the day will be shown.

Dancing pupils of Elsie Neff will present specialty numbers between acts. Helen and Betty Keller will do a tango tap; Bunny Lee Butler, Dr. Rhythm; Donna Hanneken and Shirley Ann Butler, a soft shoe and Lorraine Pritchard, a song and dance number.

"Movie Queen" is a complete take-off on Hollywood. It discloses the secrets of how stars are made famous, how movies are really directed and made and holds the entire system up to public ridicule. Newsreelers, publicity men, actors, producers, directors, designers—they're all made fun of in a friendly way.

Scenes from the actual shooting of a picture are even shown. It is something entirely new and different in the line of entertainment combining the two most popular types of entertainment, the musical comedy and moving picture.

"Movie Queen" offers you two hours and 15 minutes of laughter and fun in a show which combines the greatest variety of entertainment ever presented on a local stage. It is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce tonight only in the high school auditorium.

Methodist Graduates Are to be Honored

The Methodist young people who are being graduated this year from high school will be the guests at a special breakfast in their honor at a local tea room on Sunday morning at 8:15. Mr. and Mrs. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. John Weiss, Miss Ruth Leydig and Rev. and Mrs. Buxton are sponsoring the breakfast. Nearly all of the graduates are members of church school classes taught by Miss Leydig and Mr. Weiss. Mr. Garrison is superintendent of the church school.

Following the breakfast the young people will attend the church school and be the special guests of honor at the Sunday morning church service, wearing their caps and gowns in the professional of the choir. The minister of the church will speak on the theme, "What Society Expects of an Educated Person."

BIRTHDAY DINNER—

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Drew, 1703 First street, entertained 25 friends and relatives at their home Sunday in celebration of the birthdays of Mrs. Elsie Drew, William A. Frey, Jr., Barbara Ann Drew, Lois Grobe, Mrs. Edwin Barlow and Mrs. Alva Drew, all of which came in May. Barbara Ann and Lois, cousins, were honored with a special birthday cake adorned with three candles, while the adults also had a cake. A scramble dinner was served at noon and during the afternoon a grab bag for the honored guests caused much merriment. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Barlow and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grobe and family, Mrs. Inez Daehler, Elsie Drew, Merle Drew, Viola Switzer, William A. Frey, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billeb, Ed Frey, William A. Frey, Jr., and Miss Rae Patch, the latter of Maple Park.

Church Celebrates Wesley Anniversary

The Methodist Aid Society sponsored an all-church supper followed by a program Tuesday night commemorating the 200th anniversary of John Wesley's "heart warming," which was the beginning of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Bills, the president, presented Rev. Buxton who spoke of the many Wesley hymns which are still being sung. Many of these hymns were sung by the audience during the evening, led by Mr. Thomas.

Mrs. A. I. Hardy then gave a most interesting review of the book, "Fifty Years in Buckles and Saddles," a dramatic story of the life of John Wesley.

There was a large audience and the evening proved to be educational and enjoyable.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CHOIR TO MEET—

Mt. Morris Doings

Mrs. Bert Stimax, Reporter

Summer Concerts Planned by Band

The 1938 Mount Morris summer band concerts will begin Saturday evening, June 4. Following a custom established several years ago, Captain Bronson has extended an invitation to the Mount Morris Community School band to present the initial concert of the season. Miss Beth Hower, director of the local school band is preparing a special program for the occasion. This will afford local people an opportunity to hear the school band while in the pink of condition before vacation interferes with practice routine.

Much credit is due Miss Hower for the remarkable progress made by the school band during the past three years and the fine showing in recent contests. In order to provide an incentive, as well as reward for personal effort, Captain Bronson has selected several of the local school musicians for positions in Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band. The following are recent graduates or present members of the Mount Morris Community School band who are either regular or student members of Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band: Delbert Schell, Gilbert Silvius, Burton Davis, Mathias Huthansel, Richard McNett, Dick Steffen, Richard Park and Claremont Michael.

In selecting personnel for Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band, Captain Bronson has drawn largely from outstanding talent which has received its training in the school bands of Mount Morris, Rockford, Freeport, Dixon, Polo and other neighboring communities. Many of these young musicians are state and national champions.

Heading the list of soloists is Warrant Officer Gerald Huffman, assistant conductor and cornet soloist. Mr. Huffman has just completed a busy winter season as a member of the trumpet section of the Chicago Civic Symphony orchestra, as well as conducting classes in Bensonville and other Chicago suburbs. Recognized as one of America's top-line cornet artists, Mr. Huffman will be heard frequently throughout the season. A trio of young cornetists, Elizabeth Ford, William Chaffee, Arden Rice, pupils of Mr. Huffman, will be heard on several occasions during the summer.

The piccolo in the hands of Staff Sergeant Lee I. Douglas becomes a popular solo instrument. Sergeant Douglas' brilliant solos are always enthusiastically received and there are frequent requests for such old favorites as "Whistler and his Dog," "The Whistling Farmer Boy" and many others.

Lester Palmer, former member of the Sousa band, will again delight summer audiences with his fine baritone work. Although Robert Klepfer will be unable to be present for the first concert, according to present plans, he expects to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Klepfer, which will permit local audiences to again hear this talented young artist on the clarinet and saxophone. Graduating with high honors, in June, 1937, from the Ernest Williams Band School, Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Klepfer has successfully completed his first year as choir director of the Morgan Park Methodist church, Chicago.

Richard Bentley, a graduate this year from the Polo high school, won state honors as trombone soloist, as well as national recognition by being selected for the great National high school band, which played in St. Louis, Missouri, this spring. Richard will also compete in the national solo contest.

Roger Brown, French horn, with the Chicago Civic Symphony orchestra, plans to return for the summer concerts.

A new drummer, William H. Suhring, succeeding Francis Asp, who has resigned, will take over the responsibilities of this very important section of the band. Mr. Suhring, a member of the Kable rotogravure process department, has had several years professional experience under the leadership of Frederick Neil Innes and other well-known conductors.

Thomas Buxey, oboist, another former Sousa man and veteran of the finest English Army bands, has returned to fill a very important chair in the organization.

Robert Brown, young French horn artist, is to compete in the national solo contest which is to be held at Elkhart, Indiana. Robert is a Freeport high school student.

In addition to the instrumental soloists, Captain Bronson has assembled an imposing group of vocalists. During the summer season, the following artists will be heard from time to time: Ruby Ballard Smith, soprano, Jane Devine, soprano, Mary Alice Olsen, soprano, Helen Barnhizer, soprano, Harold Hardesty, baritone and Peter Gealy, baritone, who came to America with the famous Welsh singers. Mr. Gealy is now a resident of Rockford. While he has not yet returned from college, Captain Bronson plans to include Clarence Tracy in the band's vocal staff for the summer season. Commencing June 4, concerts will be given each Saturday evening throughout the summer with the possible exception of one when the band will be at Camp Grant for the annual field training period of the Illinois National Guard.

Florence Thomas And William Suhring Wed

Wednesday afternoon, May 25, was the occasion of a very pretty wedding in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas, when their daughter Florence became the bride of William Suhring. At the appointed hour Mrs. Theodore Thomas, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. M. H. Diehl, took her place and sang two beautiful solos, "Will You Remember?" from Maytime, and the lovely "I Love You Truly" by Bond. Then to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. Diehl, the bridal party took their places beneath an arch decorated in blue and pink and banked with spring flowers and ferns, and were joined in marriage by Rev. F. B. Stetler, pastor of the Church of the Brethren. Attending the bride couple were Miss Loretta Gilbert as maid of honor, and William Spoo, nephew of the groom, as best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Helen and Ada Fern Thomas, sisters of the bride. Mrs. Suhring was lovely in a fitted gown of white satin made with a long train, and wore a long veil and bandeau of white. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies, and in her hair wore a spray of orange blossoms which came by air mail from a great aunt in California. Her flower girl was her little niece, Dorothy Jean Barnhart, while her train was carried by her little nephew, Robert Thomas, Jr. Miss Gilbert wore aqua lace over satin, with a short veil to match and a pink bandeau, and carried pink roses. Misses Helen and Ada Fern Thomas wore pink lace over satin, with short pink veils and blue bandeaus, and carried colonial bouquets of spring flowers. After the ceremony the guests were served refreshments of ice cream molded in the form of love birds, cake and punch, the color scheme of pink and blue prevailing throughout. The bride's cake was three tiered, and decorated in pink and blue icing. Mr. and Mrs. Suhring left on a short honeymoon trip, and upon their return will make their home with the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond of Leaf River, for the summer. Mrs. Suhring is well known in Mount Morris, a graduate of the local high school, and has been employed for some time in the Poultry Tribune offices. Mr. Suhring is employed in the rotogravure department at Kable Brothers. Their many friends wish them much happiness as they begin their life together. Besides intimate friends and relatives of Mount Morris, a number of out of town guests were present, which included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Suhring, Mrs. Henry French, Mrs. Charles Spoo, all of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Wolf of Franklin Grove, Miss Mildred Bradford of Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Hammond of Leaf River.

Conductor Captain Howard C. Bronson and his musicians will strive for greater excellence this year because it is the fortieth anniversary of Kable Brothers Company. But for the active interest of Harvey J. and Harry G. Kable, the band would have long since gone the way of most volunteer bands. During all the years their interest never faltered. Band practice and concerts were attended by them. It is because of their devotion when it necessitated long and hurried trips home from distant points where business had called them. It is because of their devotion to band music that Mount Morris may boast of a musical organization of international renown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eykamp are the parents of a son born Friday at the Rockford city hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Incontro were entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Otis.

Misses Ethel Tracy, Angie Moody and Marie Jacobs attended Rebekah district meeting of district No. 8 at Sterling on Tuesday.

Misses Murray DuPont, Nelson Bruner, Kenneth Bruner and Frank Hilger attended lady's day at the Rock River golf club on Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry Schmucker, Oscar Hill, Virginia Johnson, Kenneth Bruner, Bernice Small and Gladys Hilger and Miss Matilda Bock were entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Nelson Bruner.

Mrs. Schmucker won first honor and Mrs. Hill, second.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. West entertained the young people's class of Chaffy Grove at a weiner roast at the Pines on Sunday afternoon. The evening was spent at the West home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley Longman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hovis and daughter Judy are leaving Friday for several days at Lake Waubesa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mumma of Rockford will accompany them.

Melvin Giotfelty submitted to an operation for appendicitis Tuesday morning at the Rockford city hospital.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blake at a Rockford hospital Monday.

Carl Priemer has been called to Madison by the serious illness of his mother.

Mildred Diehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Diehl has scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hendrickson were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Hendrickson's brother, Phillip Windle of Harrison.

Chapter 18
Five Ring Circus

It was the middle of the afternoon before Asey set about the tedious task of coaxing Syl's truck back to Wellfleet. That excursion to Roddy Strutt's house after he left Jennings and the hospital had turned out to be a complete bust.

The Strutt place was surrounded by a tall, iron spiked fence, and the driveway gates were locked. A Filipino with a squirt had ordered him off the entrance, and another Filipino with cauliflower ears had chased him away from the wharf.

Both men belonged to the general classification of undesirable companions for dark nights in narrow alleys. Even in broad daylight they were slightly repulsive.

A dogged series of questionings in the neighborhood of the Strutt house had netted him almost nothing. He learned that Roddy's plane was an amphibian, which he hadn't guessed from the wreckage, and he learned that Roddy had spent practically the entire previous day buzzing around in his new toy. By noontime, people had almost ceased to pay any attention to its comings and goings, other than to hope as they heard it pass overhead, that if Roddy was going to crash it in his characteristic fashion, he would crash out to sea.

One man said very definitely that Roddy's plane had left at six-thirty with the plane that was going to New York. He was sure about the time, because the noise of the two planes setting off had interrupted his favorite radio program. And everyone was positive that Roddy was returning from that jaunt when he crashed.

Asey eased the truck around a reverse curve.

If Roddy left at six-thirty, and had not returned until the crash late that night, hours after the murder, why was he paying that hush money to Nettie Hobbs?

And how in the name of common sense could Roddy have landed that plane in the square, anyway, without causing more damage? Roddy was just learning to fly. He had never touched the controls of a plane until the day before. And the descriptions of his first flight were nerve shattering.

But if Roddy Strutt wanted to advertise his homecoming, and to set the time in everyone's mind, he had picked the right place. Everyone Asey had talked with knew of the crash in the square.

Of course it had been a fine moonlight night. There were cars in the square, and possibly some had headlights on. There was an all night lunch cart there which had a couple of flood lights. Even so, it would have taken a far better pilot than Roddy to bring that plane down there without more of a mess. And would Roddy have thought to turn off his engines?

The more he thought about it, the more apparent it became to Asey that Brigham and not Roddy had brought the plane down, no matter what Roddy said. Brigham must have brought the plane down. And probably with Roddy standing over him, brandishing a monkey wrench. And probably Roddy had returned hours before to Quanomet. And the plane landing was an act, a part of a brain wave of Roddy's to alibi himself. The pilot, Brigham, would clear that up.

'That Stuff'

At home, Asey was greeted by Jennie Mayo and Dr. Cummings, both of whom talked loudly and steadily in unison on widely separated subjects. Asey sorted out the information.

Octagon House

BY PHOEBE ATWOOD TAYLOR

The Story So Far: Asey Mayo, Cap Cod detective, is privately investigating the murder of Marina Lorne, whose husband's post office mural has aroused Quanomet. She was killed by a left handed blow from her sister's knife. Suspected Pam Frye disappears because an unknown person who smokes Turkish tobacco is trailing her to discover the whereabouts of $50,000 worth of ambergris she found.

Agreeable Tim Carr, a boarder at the Frye's Octagon House, is left-handed, smokes Turkish tobacco, and hated Marina. Gabby Nettie Hobbs swears Pam is the murderer and is called a liar by Peggy Boone, an artist. Roddy Strutt, whose plane crashed in the square, pays Nettie $5,000 to keep his name out of her story. At the hospital Asey finds Roddy's pilot is still unconscious. However, he sees Jennings, a plumber, who is furious at being caricatured in the mural.

A delegation of Quano-

It had been crowded then, but now it was packed like Times Square on election night.

The regular Saturday afternoon stream of tourists and sightseers and weekenders piled into Quanomet and stayed there, instead of proceeding down the Cape to Provincetown. And the stream showed no signs of abating. If anything, it was growing wider, increased by everyone in the surrounding towns who had a vehicle that was capable of moving.

The place had taken on the general aspect of a five ring circus, with all the added attractions of carnivals, side shows and midway. Professional pitchmen fought tooth and nail for sidewalk space, in violent competition with hot dog and tonic hawkers.

In short, Quano-

met looked only fan dancers.

CITY WILL PICK UP DOGS AND CATS BUT NOT NOISY CHILDREN

Pueblo, Colo. (AP)—The city willingly will rid neighborhoods of noisy dogs and cats but when it comes to children, it's every man for himself, the city commission has ruled.

The decision was in response to a complaint against the "dogs, cats and kids" that kept a night watchman awake in the daytime.

The dog catcher was instructed to make a trip through the neighborhood but to confine himself to dog and cat catching only.

SAFETY COUNCIL APPEALS FOR NO AUTO TRAGEDIES

Reckless Driving On the Highways Over Holidays Scored Springfield, Ill., May 26.—Instead of the usual post-holiday tragic headlines telling of death and misery on the highways, the Illinois Safety Council through a state-wide demonstration on the Memorial weekend, seeks to rid next Monday's papers of motor vehicle accident stories. Assisted by churches, newspapers, radio stations and all organized groups of the state, the commission has appealed to every Illinois motorist to observe every rule of safe and courteous driving during the two-day-and-a-half holiday. Clergymen of the state have appealed to their parishioners to cooperate in the movement. Some ministers are planning to devote part of their Memorial Day sermons to the gravity of the traffic problem. Radio stations and newspapers are broadcasting news of the safety crusade. Organized groups cooperating with the commission in the safety experiment include the Illinois Order of Elks, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Illinois Agricultural Association and Illinois Junior Chamber of Commerce. Chief Walter Williams of the Illinois State Highway Police has ordered strict enforcement of the state's traffic laws. Instructions have been issued to State police lieutenants in each of the thirteen districts to concentrate their efforts on traffic violations of speeding, cutting in with limited clearance, passing on curves and hills, failure to observe stop signs and traffic control signals, and to unreasonably slow driving which constitutes a hazard. The Memorial Day demonstration was planned by the Committee on Public Safety Education of which A. W. Shipton, Springfield, is chairman. Commenting on the program, Charles M. Hayes, appointed by Governor Henry Horner to the Chairmanship of the Commission, today said: "It is altogether fitting that the Sunday before Memorial Day should be set aside as Safety Sunday. While we are paying honor to those killed in our wars, let us not forget that traffic accidents during the past thirteen years have taken more lives than the total of those killed in action or who died from wounds in all of the wars in which this country has been engaged."

Chicago District Gets 16 Qualifiers For National Open

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—The Chicago district has been allotted 16 qualifying places for the national open golf tournament to be held June 9-11 at the Cherry Hills club in Denver, the United States Golf Association announced today. A total of 126 players, 85 professionals and 41 amateurs, will compete for the right to perform in the open, with the qualifying round scheduled for Tuesday at Olympia Fields Country club. Simultaneously, 36-hole medal play rounds will be played in 30 other sections throughout the country. In addition to the 16 regular places allotted this area, Chicago's contingent in the open will include four players exempt from qualifying because they finished within the first 30 and ties in the 1937 open at Birmingham, Mich. They are Harry Cooper, Ky Lafolton, Bob Stuppel and Johnny Revoita. CARAVAN TAKES TO MOTORS NOW Ox Teams and Covered Wagons Abandoned at Danville Danville, Ill., May 26.—(AP)—A picturesque ox-team and covered wagon caravan from far away Massachusetts rumbled into town today to open the Illinois celebration of the Northwest Territory the trail the original Ohio company. Dressed as frontiersmen, the 37 actor-pioneer members of the caravan spent several months retracing sequentiennial. of settlers followed from Ipswich, Mass., to Marietta, Ohio a century and a half ago. However, for another 1,000 miles of travel to present their pageant, "Freedom on the March" in Illinois, they will go modern and use trucks between the 43 cities to be visited.

The Federal government appropriated $100,000 for the celebration, designed to acquaint residents of six states formerly comprising the territory with the historical background of the expansion of the original 13 states. The 1937 legislature passed a $20,000 appropriation for the Illinois celebration. Met by Commission Governor Horner, chairman, and other members of the Illinois commission sponsoring the visit of the caravan will attend the celebration here tonight. Local officials planned a parade late today and a dinner in honor of the governor and other members of the commission. The Northwest Territory, which included the present states of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and part of Minnesota, was established in 1787 by one of the last acts of Congress under the articles of confederation. The ordinance of 1787 marked establishment of the first American civil government west of the original 13 states. Seeking to emulate the historic trek of the original northwest territory settlers the caravan members, most of whom are college graduates, left Ipswich early last December, traveling by horse and ox-team. At Newton, Pa., the caravan built a flat boat for the trip to Marietta, where they recently helped celebrate the 150th anniversary of that community. From Danville, the caravan will go to Champaign-Urbana for a celebration in the University of Illinois memorial stadium tomorrow night. On each evening, except Sunday, the pageant will be presented out of doors to estimated Illinois audiences of a half million persons. From Illinois, the caravan will go to Wisconsin and Minnesota. ## HINTS for the Housewife

Spinach Souffle

3 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons minced onions
3 cups cooked spinach
3 egg yolks
3 egg whites, beaten

Mix butter with flour. Add milk and cook slowly until a creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add seasonings and spinach. Beat for two minutes. Add rest of the ingredients, mixing lightly. Fill a buttered mold two-thirds full. Bake souffle for 30 minutes in a pan of hot water in a moderate oven. Let stand for five minutes. Unmold carefully and surround with hot, creamed hard-cooked eggs.

Fruit Chiff

1½ cups diced fresh pineapple
½ cup granulated sugar
1 table- on lemon juice
½ cup orange juice
1 cup strawberries
1 cup sliced bananas

Mix pineapple, sugar and fruit juices. Chill for two hours or longer. Add the rest of the ingredients, also chilled. Serve in glass cups.

Sour Cream Drops

2 cups pastry flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon almond extract
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup thick sour cream

Mix ingredients and beat for two minutes. Half-fill greased muffin pans and bake for 15 minutes in a moderate oven.

Chicken Loaf

(Serves Six)
2½ cups diced cooked chicken
1 cup soft bread
1 tablespoon minced parsley
2 tablespoons minced celery
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons minced pimientos (optional)
2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons butter, melted
1 cup milk

Mix ingredients. Pour into a buttered loaf dish and bake for 35 minutes in a moderately slow oven. Unmold carefully and serve, warm or cold, cut into slices. Garnish with cress and pass a creamy sauce to which hard-cooked eggs have been added.

Broiled Tomato Slices

3 firm tomatoes
½ cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon minced onions
5 tablespoons fat

Do not peel tomatoes, but cut them into one-inch crossway slices. Sprinkle with flour and seasonings. Brown in fat heated in a frying pan. Cover and cook for ten minutes over a moderate heat.

Lemon Ice Cream

4 egg yolks
1 cup granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1½ cups cream
¼ cup lemon juice
2 tablespoons grated lemon rind
2 egg whites, beaten
½ cup whipped cream

Beat yolks. Add sugar and salt. Add milk and cook in a double boiler until the mixture thickens slightly. Cool. Add cream, juice, rind and whites. Pour into a tray in the mechanical refrigerator. After half an hour remove the tray and stir cream mixture. Repeat twice, at thirty-minute intervals. Add whipped cream and freeze until stiff. (About four hours).

Piquant Salad Dressing

1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon powdered mustard
1 teaspoon celery seed
1 teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons chopped onions
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce (optional)
3 tablespoons catsup
½ cup granulated sugar
1½ cups tomato juice
½ cup vinegar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup salad oil

Mix salt with seasonings and sugar. Slowly add rest of the ingredients. Beat until thick. Store in a covered quart jar in the refrigerator.

Angel Pie

4 egg whites
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon almond extract
1 cup granulated sugar

Beat whites until stiff. Add salt, cream of tartar and extracts. Beat for one minute. Fold in the sugar and mix lightly. Spread two inches thick in a shallow pan which has been fitted with waxed paper. Bake for 50 minutes in a slow oven. Cool and carefully place on a serving dish. Add filling.

Filling

4 egg yolks
½ cup granulated sugar
2 tablespoons flour
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ cup boiling water
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon almond extract
1 cup whipped cream

Beat yolks. Add sugar and flour. Add juice and water. Cook in a double boiler until the mixture thickens. Stir constantly to prevent lumping. Cool. Add extracts and salt. Chill. Add whipped cream and spread on top of the baked mixture. Chill two hours.

Minted Carrots

3 tablespoons brown sugar
1-3 cup boiling water
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon celery salt
2 tablespoons chopped fresh mint
2 tablespoons butter

Peel, cooked carrots. Mix sugar, water, seasonings and butter. Boil for one minute and pour over the carrots which have been placed in a shallow dish. Bake or broil for ten minutes—or until the carrots are very well glazed and brown.

Summer Quick Bread

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
4 tablespoons fat
2 egg yolks
2-3 cup milk
½ cup strawberry jam

Mix together the flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and cinnamon. Cut in the fat with a knife. Add egg yolks and milk. Mix lightly. Pour to one inch thickness in a shallow greased pan. Quickly spread with jam and bake for 12 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve fresh, cut into bars.

Chilled Fruit Custard

(Using Left-Over Egg Yolks)
4 egg yolks
2 tablespoons flour
1-3 cup granulated sugar
2½ cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon almond extract
¼ teaspoon lemon extract
1-8 teaspoon salt
1 cup cooked apricots
4 slices cake

Beat yolks. Add flour and sugar. Add milk. Cook in a double boiler until the sauce thickens. Stir frequently. When cool, add extracts and salt. Place two pieces of cake in a glass dish. Add apricots and custard mixture. Top with the rest of the cake. Chill for two hours.

Rice Ring

1½ cups rice
6 cups boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons butter
2 egg yolks
¼ cup hot milk
1 teaspoon minced parsley
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon celery salt

Add rice to boiling water and salt. Boil quickly for 20 minutes. Pour into a strainer and rice rice in quantities of hot water. Drain well. Add rest of the ingredients to the rice and press into a buttered ring mold. Set in a pan of hot water and cook, covered, for 15 minutes over a low heat on top of the stove. Let stand for five minutes. Unmold. Add Creole Fish.

Creole Fish

4 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons minced onions
2 tablespoons minced green peppers
½ cup diced mushrooms
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup tomatoes
½ cup boiling water
1-3 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
1½ cups cooked fish
2 hard cooked eggs, sliced
3 tablespoons chopped pimientos

Brown onions and peppers in the butter which has been heated in a frying pan. Add mushrooms and cook for five minutes. Add flour and when blended add tomatoes, water and seasonings. Cover and let simmer for 15 minutes. Add the rest of the ingredients. Boil for two minutes. Pour over rice ring.

Frozen Fruit Dessert

1 cup chopped cooked prunes
1½ cups hot prune juice
¼ cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
¼ teaspoon salt
2 cups diced marshmallows
2 egg whites, beaten

Mix the prunes, juices, rind, salt and marshmallows together for about ten minutes. Add whites and freeze for four hours in a tray in the mechanical refrigerator.

Brain Twizzlers

By PROF. J. D. FLINT

Grab a knapsack and a sturdy pair of shoes. We're off on a long and arduous hike. As a matter of fact, you had better bring along some pantofoles for your feet, we're walking around the world.

You may be tall or short or slim or fat but pretend for the while that you are just six feet tall in your hiking costume. Now, if it is 25,000 miles around the world by way of our trail how much farther will the top of your head travel than your feet?

Maybe we'd better call this a dream trip, so you won't get all tired out just thinking about walking around the world. It might be fine, though at that, providing there was no hurry.

Answer to Yesterday's Twizzler:
Answer: The vegetables are: 1. rutabaga; 2. asparagus; 3. pepper; 4. beet; 5. gherkin; 6. muskmelon; 7. cabbage; 8. spinach; 9. lettuce; 10. artichoke; 11. pumpkin; 12. potato.

ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR PROGRAM ON MEMORIAL DAY

Parade and Address Are Planned for Holiday Observance Here

The program for the annual Memorial day parade and exercises was announced today by the Dixon Memorial association. Dr. Eugene Vest will be the orator of the day, and the parade will pass through the business district at 10:30 A. M. The program for the services in Oakwood cemetery following the parade will be as follows:

Selection—Dixon Municipal band.
Call to order—President Rae Arnold.
Invocation—Rev. C. L. Wagner.
Song, "America"—Band and audience.
General orders of the day—Leslie Street.
"Lincoln's Gettysburg Address"—Emily Herrington.
Selection—Sons of American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps.
"Memorial Day"—Sarah Hasselberg.
Introduction of speaker—Pres. Rae A. Arnold.
Address—Dr. Eugene Vest.
"Star Spangled Banner"—Dixon Municipal band.

AUTO ACCIDENT RATE INCREASES IN LEE COUNTY

Reports of the safety department of the Illinois department of public works and buildings, division of highways, recently released, indicates a rising number of automobile accidents in Lee county. The table shows a total of 11 accidents reported in the month of March this year, with one fatality, while in 1937 the figure stood at five accidents without a fatality.

The report shows one death, 10 non-fatal accidents in March, with 17 persons being injured. To date, the figures have increased and show 26 accidents against 11 last year over the same period, with three fatalities, three persons being killed, 23 non-fatal accidents and 47 persons being injured.

In the cities with a population of from 10,000 to 25,000, the report lists but three accidents in the month of March, this year, against none last year. They were no fatal accidents and deaths, there being three non-fatal accidents with four persons being injured.

From March to date, five accidents are listed in Dixon against one last year. One death resulted, four being non-fatal and five persons being injured.

More than 300 municipal councils of Brittany have petitioned the French government that Breton be taught as a secondary language in Brittany schools.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

The keenest anguish known to human nature is the pain of a new idea. (Bagehot). We hope this column brings you pain.

Answer to Question No. 1—
1. Yes. This is the experience of most women executives who have the duty of hiring and firing for big firms. Miss Dorothy Cruger, personnel executive, says: "Men fear us. Every week we have men who refuse to be interviewed and leave when they find a woman is to interview them." I think this prejudice hardly justified.

Answer to Question No. 2—
2. The prejudices of 2000 school children were studied by Dr. H. Meltzer, St. Louis, and he found that the country children had stronger prejudices than city children. It is interesting to note that both city and country children were very positive they would go to war if the flag were "insulted." All children should be taught to reverse the flags of their country but should also be taught that war is not always the only way to "avenge" an "insult" to it.

Answer to Question No. 3—
3. Prof. Charles E. Merriam, University of Chicago economist, thinks the assumptions that: (1) we can't plan ahead because the world is changing and (2) we can't plan because human trends must run their courses and can't be changed, are wrong. If this were not so we would just have to sit by and let the world wag on as it will. Prof. Merriam thinks science can, out of the known, predict and prepare to a most helpful degree for the unknown; that science has now reached the point in its power over and through society that scientific planning and prediction of the broad course of human affairs are possible. A hopeful view.

UNEMPLOYMENT FIGURES HOLD INTEREST HERE

594 Jobless in Lee County When Census Was Taken

A detailed report of the unemployment condition in Illinois, the figures for which were compiled last November by the National Unemployment census, contains figures which are of interest to residents of Lee county. The census report shows that there existed at the time, a total of 594 unemployed persons in Lee county, of which number 475 were male and 184 females. There were 126 emergency workers, 452 who were party employed.

Of the total number of 594 who are classified as being unemployed, 81 were classified as residing on farms, 503 not living on farms and 10 not reported. In the emergency workers classification, totalling 126, 16 lived on farms and 107 did not live on a farm, three not reporting. Partly employed were 452, of which number, 80 resided on farms in the county, 358 did not live on farms and 14 were not reported.

Persons who registered in Lee county in the unemployment census by class, sex and age, are given as follows:

Total, 594; 85 being between the ages of 15 and 19; 97 between the ages of 20 to 24; 120 between the ages of 25 to 34; 91 between the ages of 35 to 44; 102 between the ages of 45 to 54; 74 between the ages of 55 to 64 and 24 between the ages of 65 to 74, one not reported.

In the classification of those totally unemployed, ordinary laborers head the list with a total of 134 persons, with all professions being classified as to number registered.

Army Worms Menace To Farmers, Motorists

Bellevue, Ill., May 26—(AP)—An unusual "crop" of army worms in St. Clair county is causing concern among motorists as well as farmers.

The pests are reported so numerous in some sections they constitute a traffic menace. County Farm Adviser Ben W. Tillman said several motorists told him the worms have caused their cars to skid as they were crushed on highways.

GREAT FIGHT EXPECTED ON LONG ISLAND

No Knockout Expected In Armstrong- Ross Bout

New York, May 26.—(AP)—Chances are that one of the great fights of boxing history will be seen tonight in a big sunken saucer on Long Island, when Barney Ross defends his welterweight championship against the phenomenal Negro featherweight king Henry Armstrong.

There have been a lot bigger fights, but it would be difficult to recall one that promised more pure, unadulterated action than this 15-rounder between the two best little men in the business.

Neither Armstrong nor Ross ever has been knocked out, and between them they virtually have cleaned out the lighter divisions. Only Lou Ambers, the lightweight champion, remains to give them a real argument. The winner tonight is due to fight Lou later in the summer.

Everything points to one of those vicious, relentless affairs where they pile into each other at the first bell and keep it up.

Ross Still Favored.

Such betting as there was today still favored the 28-year-old Barney to stem the younger Henry's lunging, swinging attack, and at the end to have his sudden glove lifted by the referee. Scarcely one of the experts thought there would be a knockout, despite Armstrong's record of having stopped 35 of his last 37 victims.

The Negro's trail of destruction did not lead him through men like Ross, who has stood and slugged for a total of 125 rounds with Jim McLarnin, Tony Conzoneri, Billy Petrolle and Cefierina Garcia. Armstrong hasn't met that kind.

Ross' only knockdown came when Garcia knocked him for a three-count in their first meeting. Barney got off the floor to beat him. Ross's legs doubtless are not what they were in his great battles a few years back, but they carried him through 15 rounds of heavy punishment against Garcia only eight months ago.

Another point made by Barney's backers is that Armstrong never has gone 15 rounds. They figure he will find those last five stanzas mighty long. At the same time, however, the homicidal little Negro has been seen to step 10 rounds without any signs of weariness. He is completely confident tonight's 15 won't bother him. He expects, of course, to win long before that.

Outside of the years he is giving away, Ross will have all the physical advantages, including a five or six-pound pull in the weights, an inch and one-half in height and a longer reach. Armstrong, on his record, probably is a little the stiffer puncher. Ross without a doubt is the better boxer.

Plans Usual Attack.

Armstrong's avowed plan of attack is to wade in, bounding and living as usual, with his chin tucked under, and to rip both fists at Barney's ageing middle until the welterweight champ buckles under. Ross is confident he can break this up.

If he does win, Barney will become the first champion to retain his title in Madison Square Garden bowl since it was opened in 1932. If Armstrong wins, he will be the first to hold both the feather and welter crowns at one and the same time.

Armstrong arose early at his training camp in Pompton Lakes, N. J., and motored in for the official weigh-in at the boxing commission. Ross needed only to hail a taxi, having polished off his training the last two days in a midtown gymnasium.

Editor's Note.—The fight will be broadcast over station WENR, Chicago, at 8 P. M., Dixon time.

BEES HARD TO BEAT IN EXTRA INNING TILT

Stengel's Nine Has Won 4 Overtimes On Home Field

By SID FEDER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

If someone can find out how a visiting team can win an extra-inning game from the Bees in Boston, he probably could make himself a nice piece of change selling the secret to seven other National League managers.

Casey Stengel's stingless outfit has played four overtime engagements at home in the last seven games, and has finished on top in each one of them. And that's one of the larger reasons why the Bees have a tight hold on third place in the National League.

They aren't hitting much harder than the size of their shoes, as usual, so they're relying on the aging arms of their big four pitchers, Deacon Danny MacFayden, Jim Turner, Lou Pette and the 31-year-old rookie, Milt Shoffner. Added to that flinging strength has been a lot of fight that Prof. Stengel brought back to the big leagues with him.

Brought Two Victories

The combination resulted in two victories in 25 innings against the Pirates on consecutive days, an 11-inning decision over the Chicago Cubs, and, as recently as yesterday, a 2-1 win over the rude Reds from Cincinnati in another 11-inning affair. In this one, MacFayden turned in a seven-hitter to best Paul Derringer and boost the Bees a game and a half in front of the Rhinelanders.

All told, the Bees have won nine of their last 10 games, and have caused Bill Terry and Cholly Grimm of the front-running Giants and Cubs no end of anxious moments as they look back over their shoulders at the buzzing Bostonians.

Although they're only two games from second place, the Bees made no advances toward the top yesterday since both Terry's Terriers and Grimm's Chicago wallpapers continued their winnings ways.

The Cubs, sparked by the three-hit pitching of Larry French, handed the doddering Dodgers a 7-2 setback, stretching the Brooklyn losing streak to five straight. French drove in the final three runs himself with a base-clearing two-bagger.

Schumacher Allows 6 Hits

Another hitting pitcher, Hal Schumacher, showed his stuff in the Giants-Cardinals game. Prince Hal not only hurled six-hit ball, but produced the winning run with a home-run smash. The result was a 3-1 victory for the New Yorkers over the gas house gang.

Bucky Walters' five-hit pitching and young Emmett Mueller's homer gave the Phillies the best of a 2-1 pitching duel with the Pirates.

In the American League, meantime, Cleveland's red-hot Indians gained a full-game on their nearest rivals by knocking off the second-place Boston Red Sox, 6-4, on the strength of a four-run rally in the seventh.

The Yankees, staggering in third place, continued to look far off form as they dropped a 7-4 decision to the Tigers, with four home runs, two each by Rudy York and Hank Greenberg, accounting for all the Detroit runs.

Rookie Howard Mills hurled 13 full innings as the St. Louis Browns outlasted the Senators 4-3. The White Sox clouted three homers to topple the Athletics, 7-4.

Von Zeppelin, the great German airship designer, got his first experience in aeronautics while acting as an observer of the Union army's balloon operations during the Civil war in this country.

Cummings Books Three Baseball Games Over Memorial Day Weekend

Dixon To Play Farm Bureau Champions, Ohio, Freeport

Baseball and plenty of it. That's Manager Bert Cummings' special Memorial Day weekend menu that will be dished up for Dixon's fans.

The local plot has arranged for the appearance of the Ogle county state champion Farm Bureau nine to play the Dixon nine Saturday afternoon on Reynolds field, the game to start at 3 p. m. On Sunday, the locals will journey to Ohio for another Illinois State League contest and on Monday, Memorial Day, the strong Freeport club of the Wisconsin-Illinois loop will appear on Reynolds field, this game to commence at 3 p. m.

Won State Title

The Ogle county Farm Bureau team won the state championship at the state fair last fall when it defeated the strongest county farm bureau teams of Illinois. This tilt should prove the strength of the Knacks. No admission will be charged.

The Knacks will find Ohio no set-up. Ohio lost a tough game to Rochelle by a 3 to 2 score in twelve innings last Sunday. Dixon will be striving for its third straight league victory.

Against Freeport, the locals will be called upon to produce the best they have. Freeport was runner-up in the Wisconsin-Illinois circuit last summer losing to Shullsburg, Wis., in the play-off series 2 to 1 in thirteen innings. Last Sunday in Freeport's opening game the team dropped a 4 to 2 decision to Winslow after collecting 14 hits to six for Winslow. Freeport's hurler fanned thirteen opposing batsmen and walked three. No admission will be charged for this game and a huge Memorial Day crowd is expected.

I. N. U. SOFTBALL TEAM CONQUERS CEMENT PLANT

The I. N. U. Co. softball team won its third game in five starts by downing the Cement Plant 6 to 5 at Reynolds field.

Although out 9 to 7, the I. N. U. got several long blows after walks had put men on the bases. "Wink" McReynolds hit a homer with one man on in the fourth. A Williams hit a four-bagger with a man on base in the seventh.

Only one error was made the entire game by each team. Derby pitched nice ball in the first four innings, allowing only three hits and no runs. In the first of the fifth he threw his knee out of joint, a recurrence of an old football injury, and Austin went in to pitch. Austin was belted for three hits and three runs before he could get the side retired. Derby recuperated during the inning and the sportsmanlike manager of the Cement Plant ten, Fazzi, allowed him to pitch the sixth. Wullbrandt pitched the last inning and gave up three walks and two hits which scored two more runs for the losers.

A Williams went all the way for the Cement Plant and hurled a steady game. The box scores follow:

He's Workin' On the Railroad

But Not Too Hard, It Seems

Kahlottus, Wash.—(AP)—J. H. Swart, station agent at Kahlottus, has one railroad job in a million. Kahlottus has two trains a week. One runs on Sunday, which is Swart's "day off"—so his train duty consists of just one meeting every seven days. In his spare time, he does clerical work.

Wendell Phillips, Boston reformer and orator, withdrew from active law practice in 1839 because he was unwilling to be bound by the advocate's oath of obedience to the Constitution.

Dixon Panthers Reorganize With Eldena First Foe

Baseball interest soared to new heights today in Dixon with the announcement by Captain Harry Slain of the reorganization of the Dixon Panthers club, which gives this city its second baseball team.

The Panthers, with virtually the same line-up they had last summer, will open their season Sunday, May 29, at Reynolds field against Eldena. The line-up will consist of Kupper or Giessner pitchers, Burke, second base, Celeski, shortstop, Dempsey, third base, Hasselberg, second base, Slain, first base, Reynolds, centerfield, Mulhausen, catcher, Scrivens, infield or outfield.

All the Panthers' home games will be played at Reynolds field. Sunday's contest will begin about 2:30 P. M. and it is hoped fans will attend to support them.

HOME LUMBER SOFTBALL TEN WINS 13 TO 5

Home Lumber Co. Lumberjacks won their first soft ball tilt of the season by defeating the Highlanders 13 to 5, through the addition of valuable new players to the line-up.

A home run was clouted by D. Valle. Triples were socked by Emmert, Schuler and Moser, the latter's coming while the bases were loaded. Stauffer, Crawford, Moser and Kelly contributed doubles.

After a bad seventh inning Kelly went into the game for the Highlanders and struck out the next two batters. A perfect day at bat was enjoyed by Moser and Crawford, both of the Lumberjack ten. The former got a walk and three hits in four trips and Crawford collected two walks and hit out of three trips to the plate.

ROCK ISLAND'S ARSENAL HOLDS IMPORTANT ROLE

Recent Trends In Mechanized Armies Bring This Fact Out

Rock Island, Ill., May 26—(AP)—America's military machine, in the opinion of Louis Johnson, assistant secretary of war, probably is better prepared than ever before but needs further strengthening.

"We are not yet ready, if called upon, to take the field in defense of America," he said last night in an address to the army ordnance association.

Johnson said there still was a "vital 50 per cent of the army's defensive program that remains to be completed before we can feel fully competent to defend our shores against invasion."

The assistant secretary spoke at ceremonies commemorating the 75th anniversary of Rock Island arsenal, the nation's largest single source of implements of war.

Johnson said the Rock Island arsenal, located in the heart of America, enjoyed an ideal strategic location for the manufacture of ordnance material and promised "years and years of useful service in the national defense program of our country."

Major General William H. Tschappat, chief of ordnance of the U. S. army, said plans worked out between the army ordnance association and the war department would make possible the manufacture of war materials of an unprecedented scale. Manufacturers, he said, were familiar with the products they would be expected to produce in time of war.

Some 15,000 spectators saw in action yesterday some of the military engines produced at the arsenal. Thirteen tanks, 20 combat cars and nine armored scout cars were deployed in a simulated attack on an emplacement equipped with four machine guns.

The 1,000 acre island in mid-Mississippi—once a Union prison for Confederate captives, later a font of rifles and artillery for the World War—is now the army's principal source of tanks, combat cars and highly mobile gun carriages.

Recent trends toward mechanization of the army has given the huge arsenal a new and important role in the nation's military program.

Military and civilian champions of national defense joined the commemorative exercises here. The army ordnance association, a nationwide society of engineers and manufacturers concerned with the technology of preparedness, moved its nineteenth annual meeting here in recognition of the arsenal's long service to the army.

"It's annual 'ordnance day' usually is held at Aberdeen province grounds, Maryland.

Louis Johnson, assistant secretary of war, headed the notables expected to attend. Others were Maj. Gen. W. H. Tschappat, chief of ordnance; Brig. Gen. Benedict Crowell, of Cleveland, assistant secretary of war and director of munitions during the World War, Col. Frederick Payne, Greenfield, Mass.; Col. Charles Wesson, who will become chief of ordnance next month.

Lies In Mississippi

The arsenal lies three-fourths of a mile out in the Mississippi from Davenport, Ia., and a quarter mile from Rock Island, and takes its names from the Illinois city. It was the site of old Fort Armstrong, in which 12,000 Confederate prisoners were quartered during the war between the states.

Yet even at that time the potentialities of the island as a spot for a manufacturing arsenal were recognized, and construction of the first storehouse was begun in 1863.

By the time American troops marched to another war, in Cuba and Puerto Rico, the facilities on the island had been increased to 10 shop buildings. Crews were put to work turning out horse-drawn gun carriages, caissons and cavalry and infantry equipment.

It was at the Rock Island arsenal in the critical days of the World War, that the Allies' designs for field artillery were adapted to American production methods. The activities of civilian industrial plants making artillery pieces were co-ordinated here, and the shops produced supplies for mounted troops and such equipment as canteens and mess kits. The personnel at the armory worked around the clock manufacturing rifles for the A. E. F.

At the peak of the war-time production, 13,263 employees were engaged in the manufacturing of munitions.

About 2,000 men are now employed at the arsenal, including a maintenance company of 70 army men. The non-military workers are engaged through the civil service. The physical plant is made up of 20 manufacturing buildings and 100 storehouses. Colonel Norman F. Ramsey is the commanding officer.

Employment Forms Are Now Available

The local Employment Service today announced it now has supplies of unemployment compensation report forms, rules, regulations and explanatory material for distribution. Henceforth, employers in Lee county can address requests for most unemployment compensation material to the public employment office at the Coliseum Bldg., Sterling, Ill. Contribution reports and reports on individual workers' earnings are not among the materials available. Since these forms must carry addressograph account numbers when issued, they are obtainable only from the Unemployment Compensation Division in Chicago. Forms on hand at the local employment office include several that apply to employing units not otherwise covered by the Unemployment Compensation law. These are: report of commencement of business, report of termination of business, and report of change of name. Likewise available locally are reports to determine liability which every firm employing one or more persons must file, if it has not already done so.
